

THIRTY-SEHVAN C. FORTY-SEVEN

U.S. Navy's Military Sealift Command (MSC)

Deputy Disbursing Officer/Purser (GS-14)

Search & Rescue Officer (SRS)

In his current role, Mr. Thirty-Sehvan C. Forty-Seven is the Deputy Disbursing Officer/Purser for the U.S. Navy's Military Sealift Command where he is responsible for providing administrative customer service support and advice on the full spectrum of financial and Civilian Mariner (CIVMAR) personnel matters to the Master/Captain of MSC Commanded vessels. Sehvan is a graduate of Saint Leo University where he earned a Bachelor of Business Administration - Technology Management degree and a graduate of Embry Riddle Aeronautical University where he earned a Master of Logistics and Supply Chain Management (MSLSCM).

Sehvan is a Veteran having served honorably afloat from 2002 to 2004 on the USS Elrod (FFG-55) – USS Thomas S. Gates (CG-51) - USS John L. Hall (FFG-32) making UNITAS deployments supporting Counter/Narcotics Operations in the US Southern Command. He forward deployed from 2005 to 2008 as a 90MN - Individual Augmentee supporting the Global War on terrorism engaging in Operation Iraqi & Enduring Freedom (OIF/OEF) Coalition Combat Operations. Thus transferring in 2009 - volunteering to assist in Operation Unified Response (Task Force: 48 – Haiti Humanitarian Relief.)

In 2010 Sehvan joined Military Sealift Command (MSC) and graduated from Naval Aviation - Search and Rescue (SRS) School: 2011 – Plankowner for the Combat Logistics vessel USNS William McLean (T-AKE 11). 2012 to 2013 – Hazardous Material Coordinator for the Submarine Tender USS Emory S. Land (AS-39) 2014 – Logistic Management Specialist aboard the Ammo/Cargo ship: USNS Amelia Earhart (T-AKE 6). Promoted in 2015 to Staff Officer earned a Department Head Leadership Course (DHLC) certificate from the Naval Center for Personal & Professional Development assuming Department Head duties aboard the Special Mission platforms: Fleet Ocean Tug USNS Navajo (T-ATF 169) & Cable Laying Repair vessel USNS Zeus (T-ARC 7). Thus transferring in 2016 to Spearhead – Class: Expeditionary Fast Transport USNS Choctaw County (T-EPF 2) & Fleet Replenishment vessel USNS Big Horn (T-AO 198). Then onward in 2017 to the largest Hospital Ship in the world USNS Mercy (T-AH 19) - with primary mission to provide rapid, flexible, and mobile acute support to Military Air/Ground Task Forces ashore and Naval Amphibious battle forces deployed afloat. While providing Humanitarian Civic Assistance (HCA) and Disaster Relief to aided Countries.

His personal awards and recognition include National Defense Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Armed Services Medal, Expert Pistol Shot Medal, Expert Rifleman Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, Flag Letter of Commendation, and Good Conduct Medal(2), Military Sealift Command: On-the-Spot Individual and Group Award(2).